"Accept The Compliment"

Visit "Accept The Compliment" on MotoLyrics.com

Please accept the compliment
Believe that I mean it
It seems like you've been hesitant
Let me build your ego
Let me now
Come, let me now

How many times have you come across
The situations you think you get beat by
When you're the only one to see it with that eye
With that eye

Please accept the compliment
Recede into the background
While the sun ain't changed,
they're calling it gray
Have you forgotten who you're dealing with?
And all that you say is done
You're over and out
Let me build your ego, let me now

Under the waves that pull me up from under
So let me repay you now
You can move when you wanna move
Anyway my heart won't change
(As far as you want my heart won't change)
It's no different
Whatever it is you do
Believe I will
Feel the same way
This will not change
Feel the same way
Always
