How can you take
Away my favorite star?
But I don't think that could happen soon
No, not in this lifetime
We live like one for the other, a part of the same

Oh great
Here comes another contender swept away
And I'll show them, teach them to mess with us
Laws will be laid down
Unwound

We play some parts up, others down to our ankles
We're not running from anyone
We've only just begun
Like the song

Now if you come around
I'll give you my address
Let me in on your progress
As close as we are
My favorite star

And I'll show them, teach them to mess with us
Laws will be laid down
It's not in my control
Trust your hands
Our future plans work out
Unwound

How can you take
Away my favorite star?
Take my favorite star
And I'll show them, teach them to mess with us
Laws will be laid down
It's not in my control
Trust your hands
Our future plans work out

They'll work out
They'll work out
