You're just a song
And everybody knows the words
You're just a song
And I'm sure that he has heard

That when I sing this song I die
I hope you hear this song and cry
And you might even get a broken heart
Just like anybody

[Chorus]

I can't begin to explain why I'm with her
Cause the girl is insane
If this is my song then
How come everyone's singing along

You're just a song
You're just chorus and verse
You're just a song
The more I hear it the more it hurts

I think I'm a million miles from home

But there's only a couple to go
I'm not the first one to be shot down
I'm just the last one to know

[Chorus]

Someone help me
I think I've come undone
A one hit wonder to him
Is still the song that I'm in love with

You're just a song
I wrote one just to say
You're just a song
You hear one everyday

[Chorus]

Someone help me

I think I've come undone
A one hit wonder to him
Is still the song that I'm in love with

You're just my song
