I'm sick and tired, of my intention's
And my shadows won't, go away now It's scaring me to death, why should I face this now Why should I, why should I go

No I will never be afraid And no I will never see the sky
the same way again, again, when it's gone, then it's gone I'll see it through a different light when I'm on my own When the sky is gray, I will woah / no I'm never gonna make it woah / no I'm never gonna fake it Long gone are my fears, and I won't shed my tears

Now I can finally believe that the shadows are gone and I can be alive again my friend

I'll never break this down / break it down I'll never make it on my own / I'll see the sky again

No / I / Can't / Break this / No / I / Will / never face this I / see / you / there x2

Now I can finally believe that the shadows are gone
and I can be alive again my friend
It's what I wanted to see, to believe again I'll see you in the end, the end
