In comes the observer
Taking everything in stride
The world equals four corners of the mind
Keep it on the down low
Keep it hush, hush, honey
Choosing an adventure is such a rush

Ms. Ecstatic that's how she is tonight
Unabashed
As long as it feels alright
If that's okay with you I don't mind
Anytime I don't mind

In comes reality
It suddenly hit
It was too good to be true
Now you want more than I can give you
Wait a minute!
That's out of the question
Let's skip redemption

Ms. Ecstatic that's how she is tonight
Unabashed
As long as it feels alright
If that's the way with you
I do mind
