And she'll say she'll make you feel alright
And she'll say she'll love you more than life
Like a living fairy tale you've got to believe her

So behold the greatest show on earth
Ladies and gentlemen, the princess of disguise
And she don't love your for just your money
(Money don't turn her on at all)
Funny, when I lie I feel so funny
(Funny, I feel like that today)
Like a modern heart attack is how much you need her
So put your hands together the princess has arrived!€!
