

Allan Gary

"I've Got A Quarter In My Pocket"

Visit "I've Got A Quarter In My Pocket" on MotoLyrics.com

I've got a quarter in my pocket
Won't you tell me what I should do
Should I put it in the phone
So I can come crawling home to you
Or should I put it in the jukebox
And play another heartbreak song
I'm leaning towards the latter
And I really hate being alone
Gonna flip it in the air
Gonna watch it fly
If it's heads I might love again
If it's tails I'll cry
I've got a quarter in my pocket
Won't you tell me what I should do
Should I put it in the phone
So I can come crawling home to you
Or should I put it in the jukebox
And play another heartbreak song
I'm leaning towards the latter
And I really hate being alone
Here I am again

On the same ol' stool
With the same ol' question
And the mind of a fool
I've got a quarter in my pocket
Won't you tell me what I should do
Should I put it in the phone
So I can come crawling home to you
Or should I put it in the jukebox
And play another heartbreak song
I'm leaning towards the latter
And I really hate being alone
Well I've got a quarter in my pocket
And I really hate being alone

Visit Allan Gary page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.