No rush

though I need your touch

I won't rush your heart until you feel

on solid ground

until your strength is found girl...

chorus:

I'll fill those canyons in your soul

like a river lead you home and I'll walk a step behind

in the shadows so you shine

just ask it will be done

and I will prove my love

until you're sure that I'm the one

somebody else

was here before

he treated you unkind

the broken wings

need time to heal

before a heart can fly

girl....

chorus:

I'll fill those canyons in your soul

bridge:

trust in me

and you'll find a heart so true all I wanna do

give the best of me to you and stand beside you....
