We are none of us

If I still believed in me

I would lie

If I had another chance I would try

If I lost my dreams I would blame myself again

If I were myself I would be someone else

If I didn't want to feel

I would stay

If I were myself I would be someone else

Cause I can

See the truth in the photograph

And with all that's mine

I need to look back inside

And this day

New life raced through my mind

So with all that's mine

I need to look back inside
