Hello Sunshine,
You're where I want to roam
I've had some cloudy days and I want to come back home
So take them golden beams and burn them in my bones

Hello Sunshine,
I've roamed, I've roamed, I've roamed to the cold hard winter
Only to find frozen frosty hell California I am on my way, on my way back to you I don't want to turn back now, I'm already walking towards the sun.

Hello Sunshine,
You're where I want to roam
I've had some cloudy days and I want to come back
home
So take them golden beams and burn them in my
bones,

Hello Sunshine!

I've heard, I've heard, I've heard, a calling voice Calling back to me an old sweet song California won't you take me back,
To your arms once again!
I don't want to turn back now, I'm already walking
towards the sun.

Hello Sunshine,
You're where I want to roam
I've had some cloudy days and I want to come back
home
So take them golden beams and burn them in my bones
Hello Sunshine!
