

Riverside "I'm Gone"

Visit "I'm Gone" on MotoLyrics.com

This room is so empty now
No furniture, nothing on these walls Nothing left for me to call this home

Because Iâ€™ve been gone for a long time, and Iâ€™m just fine with that Because Iâ€™m on my own, not in some dead-end town, not waiting for someone to say

Hang up the phone just to hear me, but Iâ€™m not upstairs Alone in a space for a thousand years, its cruel and empty
Been gone for a year now, and I know youâ€™re not ok

Leaving town to come home, the roads unfold they hold the light Alone and out of sight
This small town beckons home, these are those and moments hold Vacant roads winding awkwardly Donâ€™t miss me Iâ€™ll be back, forget this happened, just to see you smile
