Flip your hair like you always used to do
Never talk to anybody unless they talk to you first
And I've said everyone strives for what they can't have
When these threatening landscapes fill my eyes
Its the part that you don't see that you don't like

Lying awake in a dream you can't escape
Don't talk to anybody, they won't make you feel safe
I'm drawing a day, closer to a photograph you once had made
The symbols aren't the same
And I bet that he's waiting for you

I'm not about to let this get me through Something tangible left for you to hold on to Don't put it all on me, its a line burned in the ground ignited by kerosene
'Cause I know yes I know

And i know yes i know, the worst is over
Don't put it all on me
