If there was a secret place that we can walk to,
down a path where there is no trail
If there was a secret place that we can walk to,
down a path where there is no trail

If there was a secret place that we can walk to,
down a path where there is no trail
And I would say I'd walk so far x2
Until the sun breaks down on us.

And I've got two pennies in my hands,
One to buy a loaf of bread and a lily with the other,
And I would give a lily to you x2
Until the sun breaks down on us.

Singing La la lalala la x4
Until the sun breaks down on us,

Singing La la lalala la x4
Until the sun breaks down on us,
Until the sun breaks down on us,
Until the sun breaks down on us,
Until the sun breaks down on us.
