Rolling along, that's what I got to be, Cause I've burned all my bridges,
And slept in bad company,
I bet you heard about it, bet you heard all about it

But it don't mean a thing cause I don't got anyone to blame,

I'm on my way back home, and all my ways have changed,
I'm on my way back home, and won't it be ok.

Baby x5

Do you know what it means to me!
But I'm no rookie tell me honey, what's the price I got to pay?
I've given up my stealing hands, thrown down a bottle or two
But it don't mean a thing, cause I don't got anyone to
blame,

changed,
I'm on my way back home, and won't it be ok,

changed x2

I'm on my way back home and won't you take me back,
The way that it's supposed to be.

One, two, three, four

Oh won't you take me, oh won't you take me back, Oh won't you take me, oh won't you take me back home!
