When you bleed black blood and you hit the ground running

Time stops ticking but it never stops coming

And I know you're broken down

And I know you're beat on the ground

In a bright lit sky that filled your mind

It's a time reminiscent of a little white lie

Like when we said we'd come to visit someday

When I got the call its all she said

You're leaving us stuck in my head

And its all I never wanted

In the views bestowed upon you and the broad horizons that we never really got to Cause it's the last time I'll see you

We didn't even know your name

Cause yeah we were so young

And all we ever wanted was attention off the balcony

On the highway this ride's over

We're the last train running through town

When the fire's been burning bright for these long years

Its time to lay down

And we're sorry you're cold

Cause we've been dreaming for so long

And your crying is old

I know its not over

And we're all just dreaming
