"Melissa"

I'm kneeling in front of the altar

Satan's cross upon the wall

Strange emptiness, a crystal ball between two candles

Melissa has entered another life

Melissa, you were mine

Melissa, you were the light

She was a witch

Why did they take you away?

Melissa, you were the queen of the night

Melissa, you were my light

I swear revenge on the priest

The priest must die

He must die in the name of Hell

Melissa, can you hear me?

Melissa, are you there?

Nothing is left outside at the stake
