Silence finally now is broken,
One thousand years and it seems so long.
Suspended animation's lonely,
I can't recognize a sky so black,
But it feels so wrong.
Ashes will rain,
So timeless they stain all the skies.
Where once there was bliss,
Now left with the wish,
That somebody'd left me to die.
Sky... is black and gray the world has changed another phase in history.
Waste... a mother holds her dying son,
Although she knows he was the guilty one.
Our last embrace,
I can still see your face in my mind.
Alive once again without any friends.
The planet's been scorched now and fried.
Flick of a switch,
How he shook and he twitched,
Bringing and end...
End to all of mankind.
Happened so suddenly, oh, how the apathy.
Murder the ultimate crime.
Grave situation,
Hold tight to your patience,
We sit and watch man destroy himself.
Hate is it? The worst form of emotion,
The aftermath lies beside yourself.
Ashes will rain timeless they'll stain all the skies!
Flip of a switch,
How he shook and he twitched,
Bringing and end...
Bring an end to mankind.
Happened so suddenly, witness the apathy now.
Murder the ultimate crime.
Be the end of mankind,
Murder the ultimate crime.
I'll be the death of mankind.
