No stop signs, no red lights
No, nothing's gonna slow her down
If there's traffic on the main road
She'll find a way around
She's got her foot on the gas
She's gettin' gone real fast

Guess I waited to long
To try and stop her leaving
She told me it was coming
I never did believe it
Now she's running running running
Running running running
Away from this fool
And all of my pride
I should've tried
To dry those tears falling down
But there ain't no stopping her now

I bet she's closing in on Knoxville
Headed to her momma's house
On her cell phone
With her best friend
Telling her how it all went down
She's probably cursing my name
All the way

Guess I waited to long
To try and stop her leaving
She told me it was coming
I never did believe it
Now she's running running running
Running running running
Away from this fool
And all of my pride
I should've tried
To dry those tears falling down
But there ain't no stopping her now

Now she's running away

Guess I waited to long
To try and stop her leaving
Now she's running running running
Running running running

Guess I waited to long
To try and stop her leaving
She told me it was coming
I never did believe it
Now she's running running running
Running running running
Away from this fool
And all of my pride
I should've tried

There ain't no stopping her now
