You thrust the knife into my side with words you say you

Realize
That I came to speak of what I see no matter what you do to me

I stand --- no compromise --- I feel --- prepared to die

Falling, our lives were led astray when we fell from grace Calling, your life won't be denied when washed with blood and

Flames

You thrust the knife into my side with words you say
you

Realize

I stand --- no compromise --- I feel --- prepared to die

My life for yours, this raging war, as I stand in the midst of

Darkness screaming

grace
Calling, your life won't be denied when washed with blood and

Flames

My life for yours, this raging war, as I stand in the midst of

We know our roots, we know the truth, the strength of our
