sometimes it feels so cool when winter pass through june when summer pass to the moon sometimes it feels so bad when i am laying sad making myself mad because i can't find you i can't find you

but i am passing through this rain it always wash up my pain i wish you're here to hold me tight and kiss me through this starry night but i am skipping down the trail when dirt comes off my nail i wish it'll be alright and hold me through this starry night sometimes i feel all alone when you were gone i'm not gonna find you how will i do if i strain away this day here's nothing else to say one day you'll see me but if you'll hear me

i feel alone i feel so strong i feel so weak i feel the leak i might pass by

i might cry
i feel so mad cos it hurts so bad it hurts so bad while i lie i wish you were by my side
