She held her breath again
To kiss her faith away
She dive into the sky Smoke it away with a wonder why She goes and goes over
She just want to be free
She can't be loved again
She just want to be like me
Hold on it's too tight It'll be alright and hold me while it's the night

So hurting here is something else
that nothing can take just like ourselves
Be gone and list it down
I won't cry
I'd try before I die far away between this one old stars through the starry night
tell me hold me it's gonna be alright

She lies underneath the stars
She is folded through my arms
And we gazed upon the life before the one She got me over her Before we hold back again
She lies between her knees
And her life doesn't increase

So hurting here is something else
that nothing can take just like ourselves
Be gone and list it down
I won't cry
I'd try before I die far away between this
one old stars through the starry night
tell me hold me it's gonna be alright

come along with me we'll be all free take my hand I'll understand be wrong stay strong don't leave

So hurting here is something else
that nothing can take just like ourselves
Be gone and list it down
I won't cry
I'd try before I die far away between this
one old stars through the starry night
tell me hold me it's gonna be alright

So hurting here is something else
that nothing can take just like ourselves
Be gone and list it down
I won't cry
I'd try before I die far away between this
one old stars through the starry night
tell me hold me it's gonna be alright
