You thrust the knife into my side
With words you say you realize
That I came to speak of what I see
No matter what you do to me

I stand no compromise
I feel prepared to die

Falling, our lives were led astray
When we fell from grace
Calling your life won't be denied
When washed with blood & flames

You thrust the knife into my side with Words you say you realize

That I stand no compromise
I feel prepared to die

My life for yours is a raging war
As I stand in the midst of darkness screaming

Falling, our lives were led astray
When we fell from grace
Calling, your life won't be denied
When washed with blood & flames

Come on

My life for yours, this raging war
As I stand in the midst of darkness screaming
We know our roots, we know the truth
The strength of our foundations

I stand no compromise
I feel prepared to die

Falling, our lives were led astray
When we fell from grace
Calling, your life won't be denied
When washed with blood & flames

My life for yours is a raging war
As I stand in the midst of darkness screaming
We know our roots, we know the truth
The strength of our foundations
