Could you be so blind
Didn't care less
After all the things I've said to you
Look me in my eyes with the blank stare
Why don't you know
Why don't you know what to do
Why are you so apprehensive
About everything and anything
All the time
You need to make up your mind
Could it be anymore easier
Could I be talking in a foreign language
I'm so tired of giving explanations
So now you're on your own, clueless

Here's my last breath
Here's my last attempt
For you to understand you're so clueless
You're gonna have to wait around and see
To see I'm gone, see I'm gone
Here's my last breath
Here's my last attempt
For you to understand
That I ain't giving no hints
I'm leaving you clueless
Clueless, clueless
Will you get it someday

Did someone turn off the lights in your head
Is no one there
To answer me when I ask a question
To give me some commission
I'm ready to move in a new direction
You're such a waste of time
I don't know how to get my point through to you

Here's my last breath
Here's my last attempt
For you to understand you're so clueless
You're gonna have to wait around and see
To see I'm gone, see I'm gone (gone)

Here's my last breath
Here's my last attempt
For you to understand
That I ain't giving no hints
I'm leaving you clueless

Whenever we fuss and fight
It feels like it's one side
You never try
You're always one step behind
I really wanted you to know
My feelings for you are starting to change
But you didn't get the memo (you didn't get the memo)
So I gotta let you go

Here's my last breath
To see I'm gone, see I'm gone
You're so clueless
You're gonna have to wait around to see
To see I'm gone, see I'm gone

Here's my last breath
Here's my last attempt
So I'm leaving you clueless
(So clueless, so clueless)
Ain't giving no hints
So I'm leaving you clueless
(So clueless, so clueless)
(So clueless, so clueless)
That I ain't giving no hints
