Big winter, big winter, big winter
You are here again
And you have been my oldest friend

But now it's so easy to notices
That you're here to stay
And you have never turned me away

That's why it's so hard for me
To have to say goodbye
To take off and fly
To where the sun shines

That's why it's so hard for me
To say this is the end
When I'll be back again
Yeah, when the sun shines

Big winter, big winter, big winter
You are here to stay
And you will finally turn me away
