"Pretty little poison"

Every time I turn you loose
Time breaks down my will
There's a craving in my heart
No other love can fill
I can't find a way to stop
So I just let go
You reach a place in me
I don't even wanna know

Fill me up
Pretty little poison
Knock that magic through my veins
Make it flash! Make it rain
Down, like love
Pretty little poison
'Til I can't tell this blindness from the night.

Oh love
Hold me tight between your knees
Oh love
Press my lips to your disease
Yeah, my love is lifeblood
The thing I need
Inside of me
