Someone has taken your love, its true isn't it?

Its not just talk that I hear

And when I see him build his wall around you

I know the end is near

Tell me that I'm wrong

And its all in my mind

You've known all along

And it just make my blood run wild

And i'm dying

So I'm back

Back on the streets

Yes, i'm back to find somebody new

I'm back

I'm back on the streets

Girl, i'm back and i'm over you

I've lost your love girl

And all that I live for I see it in your eyes

And when I see you walking out that door girl

Another part of me dies

Its time to move on

And I know it for sure

The feeling is gone

And I won't be hurt anymore

And i'm not going to fall

So I'm back

Back on the streets

Yes, I'm back to find somebody new

I'm back! I'm back on the streets

Girl, i'm back and I'm over you

So I'm back

Back on the streets

Yes, I'm back to find somebody new

I'm back! I'm back on the streets

Girl, I'm back and I'm over you
