You have always taken more than you need

You always try to satisfy your greed

You don't care, it will make my heart bleed

Oh, I know I've been blind

Oh, it's all gone through

Oh, I'm out of my mind

Oh, she knows what to do

Oh, give you my heart

But you tried for my soul

It didn't take long before I lost control

Your love sure has taken toll

Oh, I know I've been blind

Oh, it's all gone through

Oh, you know I'm out of my mind

She knows what to do

The look in your eyes can make my blood turn to water

Sometimes I believe you're the devils own daughter

I was led like a lamb to the slaughter
