How do you rate the morning sun
After a long a sleepless night
How many stars would you give to the moon?
Can you see those stars from where you are?
Shine on the lost and lonely
The ones who can't get over it

You always wanted more than life
But now you don't have the appetite
In a message to the troubadour
The world don't love you anymore
Tell me how do you rate the morning sun?

Stuck inside the rainbow
You could happen to be Cause I've been close to where you are
It all seems so familiar
Like they've been sent to kill'ya

It doesn't take an astronaut
To float in a space is just a thought
The morning brings a mystery
The evening makes it history
Who am I to rate the morning sun?

And the village drunk
You know he sadly passed away,
It was a shame I never knew his name
I wonder if he sat there in the morning
Watched the sunrise

How do you rate the morning sun
It's just to heavy for me
And all I wanted was the world
And you were the star that lit the sun
Don't go wasting your time
Cause there is no finish line
And you don't see anything,
Not even love NOT ANYTING,
The night can take the man from you
A sense of wonder overdue

The morning brings a mystery
The evening makes it history
Who am I to rate the morning sun?
