Clouds are gathering, closing in it seems
Why can't I move?
You circled overhead with Your love instead
Beckoning

Now hope has found me, I am not alone
Now hope has found me, I am not disowned
And when I think it's over, I am not alone
Oh, when you think it's over, you can start it over

You, Your peace within my soul
Mercy You have shown though trials come
You, You're calling me to climb
Up this mountain side, here I go, here I go

Now hope has found me, I am not alone
Now hope has found me, I am not disowned
And when I think it's over, I am not alone
Oh, when you think it's over, you can start it over, yeah
You can start it over, oh, you can start it over, oh

You calling me back home
It's Your voice I know, beckoning, oh, no

Now hope has found me, I am not alone
Now hope has found me and, I am not disowned
When I think it's over, I am not alone
Oh, when you think it's over, oh when you think it's over
You can start it over
