"You Have Stirred My Soul"

You have stirred my soul
I am overwhelmed
At how this came to be
That I would know such love

You have stirred my soul
Not by my own deed
But Your sacrifice
It has made me whole

And love more beautiful today
With offerings of grace
You're calling me away
And love more beautiful today
I am not the same
You're calling me away
To You

To You
Our voices rise
To You
Our spirits rise
To You
This love be given back
