Do you believe, that you're on your own?
Searching in vain, for a closer friend
Love isn't blind and you're not alone
Those heart-breaking days, may have reached an end

Chorus
I Could Be Good For You
My, my
I Could Be Good For You
My, my

So, you're star-struck, living for the stage
You need a change of luck... that can be arranged
Consider your fate, think about your age
There's no time to wait for your luck to change

Chorus

What you do now, isn't my concern
Just let me know how you survive out there
I want you to know, I may not return
If you care to go... I'd take you anywhere

Chorus

I Could Be Good For You
I Could Be Good For You
