You can go now, I'll stay behind, you never noticed anyway
But if I told you what's on my mind, you'd think it was a waste of time
Let me lay it right on the line, I'll be a stranger anyday It's all so loveless, all such a crime, I'll make it's all a waste of time
(Solo)
Stealing, dealing, little one, you'd like to have more than I make
More than I make!
You think you deserve the best, wining, dining, give me a break
Give me a break!
You taught me, I tell you, you taught me, I tell you
You taught me, I tell you, you taught me, I tell you
(Solo)
When it's over, who will we blame, you're telling me, I'm telling you
You can go now, I'll stay behind, but honey, please, don't waste my
time
