Seems I been waiting here forever
Girl I don't know what else to do
Season have changed
But not for better
Where is the love that we once knew
Try to be strong
But now you're leaving
Heartache keeps bringing on the pain
This is the last time that you'll see me
Baby our love was not in vain

Lord I wish it would rain
Rain fall down wash away all my hurt and pain
Lord I wish it would rain
Rain pour down take away all the hurt and shame

Remember those summer night sweet kisses
Writing our names with sticks in sand
You were my queen on wild horses
We'd ride across this wild land
Swore that our love would last forever
But now we're waiting on the rain
Some people say nothing last forever
Baby our love was not in vain

Oh oh I wish it would rain
Rain fall down take away all my hurt and pain
Oh oh lord I wish it would rain
Rain fall down wash away all the hurt and shame

Yeah I've been guilty lord
Yeah I know I've done you wrong
And I must confess I'm cursed
But I'd never do you harm
All the laughter and the tears
Who would have thought through all the years
We're letting go
Hold on hold on

(Guitar)

I wish it would rain
Rain fall down wash away all my hurt and pain

Saying good bye my love
If ever you feel you really need a friend
Just call my name and I'll come running
Until the bitter dying end
Baby don't ever stop believing
I know you'll always find your way
Storm clouds are crying tears from heaven
That's when the angels may appear

I wish it would rain
Rain fall down wash away all my hurt and pain
Oh lord oh lord I wish it would rain
Rain fall down take away all the hurt and shame
Oh lord oh lord don't leave me this way
Rain fall down wash away all the hurt and heartache
Oh yeah the rain comes falling down
Falling down
Rain falls down wash away all my fear and heartache
Sometimes things just don't go the way you want it to

I don't understand
I've done my time here the best way I can
I gotta see you lord
You know I wanna see you lord
I wanna feel you lord
See you lord
Take me away
Take me away
Take me away
Take me away
