I saw your face

I look at you

And all you did

Was laughing to my face

I started at you

And then you true

A vase right in my face

I said I saw your face

Your eyes where glowing

Oh oh I saw your lips

There was a smile

Just for me

Only for me

Just for me

Then suddenly

She came to me

And smashed me

Out the Door

And finely

She said To me

No tramps Anymore

I said

I Saw your face

Your eyes Where glowing

Oh oh I saw Your lips

There was no smile anymore

No smile anymore

No tramps anymore
