Amaru
The Victim EP/Love, Lies and Therapy
Killer Inside

[Verse 1]

Everytime you lock the door
I get that feeling over and over
It makes me wonder how you forget everything
When you're sober

The lights go up, we hit the floor
And you swear you'll never know a thing
About the secrets that you keep inside
I guess that is the only way

[Chorus]

Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me
Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me
You say my love and game is overwhelming
I think you need some therapy
Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me
Whoa!

[Verse 2]

Round two, here we go, here we go again
You drive me so damn crazy
You tell me you need me more and more each day
You know I have to disagree

Time and time again, I let you in You're just another memory
Tonight's the night we have to make it right
And baby it's just you and me

[Chorus]

Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me (Killer
inside of me)
Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me, Yeah!

You say my love and game is overwhelming
I think you need some therapy
Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me
Whoa!

[Bridge]

I look into your eyes
I know what's on your mind
All the dirty thing you want inside

I love the way it feels
But I know it's not right
Your secrets safe with me, now!

Just another memory

x 3

Whoa!

[Chorus]

Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me (Killer
inside of me)
Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me, Yeah!
You say my love and game is overwhelming
I think you need some therapy
Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me, me!

Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me
(Stab into my heart, you're the killer inside of me)

x 2

Inside of me

x 3
