The door's open in heaven wide
I took a look on the other side
Took a drink for you and me
In our heart I hope you can be free

War keep on goin' on
Stood on the rocks to rise above the storm
So much love cried out the years
Forget all the heartaches, so many tears

Take love and receive it
You know that you need it
Take love where you find it
You know I don't mind

Dreamed a dream for all mankind
The light of love lightens up my mind
Take me up Lord where beauty lies
So much love if we can grow inside

Take love and receive it
You know that you need it
Take love where you find it
You know I don't mind

Now we're back for the evermore
Here comes the ships oh taking us to that shore
The glory of life will shine all the time
Lord, I know it really gets my mind

Take love and receive it
Don't you know that you need it?
Take love where you find it
You know I don't mind

In the love
Take love and receive it
Take love and receive it
Don't you know that you need it?

Take love and receive it
Don't you know that you need it?

Take love and receive it
Don't you know you'll need it?
