Lord I'd forgotten just how good you made me feel

I hadn't been inside a church for many many years
This life of mine had kept me on the go But my little daughter asked if on my next weekend at home
I would go with her as it would please her so

So at six o'clock this mornin' I got up and washed the car
Put on the only suit and tie I own She was pretty as a picture as we walked in hand in hand
Both knowin' I'd have never gone alone

'Cause Lord I'd forgotten just how good you made me feel
All the worries of my life you make seem so unrea-eal
If you'd like me back next Sunday - you got a deal
'Cause Lord I'd forgotten just how good you made me

We sang up all the old songs I'd forgotten that I knew Appreciating every single one And from the smiling congregation that was gathered there for you
It was plain to see the wonders that you'd done

And Lord I'd forgotten just how good you made me feel
All the worries of my life you make seem so unrea-eal
If you'd like me back next Sunday - you got a deal
'Cause Lord I'd forgotten just how good you made me
feel
Lord I'd forgotten just how good - you ma-ade - me feel
