Would you believe me if I told you,
You're the one,
I wanna be with 'til I slowly lose my mind from getting old?
I've had so many feelings and mixed emotions,
But now I'm thinking straight and bold and you're still the one that,
I'm thinking of the most

Oh, it's like a dream that's coming true,
Ohh, it's such a nightmare when I'm not with you.
Oh, it's like a fire burning off in my heart,
Ohh, I'm so much warmer than I was at the start.

Can we be forever?
And I will run to you if,
That's the way you want it,
I don't think a single obstacle can stand in my way.
And I would cry my heart out,
If I were to wake up without,
Your body laying next to me.

I can't believe it when you tell me,
That you love me and I'm on your mind, almost every single waking day
It's like the weight upon my shoulders has been lifted when you kiss me,
I know I've found a love that's gonna stay.

Oh, it's like a dream that's coming true,
Ohh, it's such a nightmare when I'm not with you.
Oh, it's like a fire burning off in my heart,
Ohh, I'm so much warmer than I was at the start.

Can we be forever?
And I will run to you if,
That's the way you want it,
I don't think a single obstacle can stand in my way.
And I would cry my heart out,
If I were to wake up without,
Your body laying next to me.

And I will save my chances,
For a million dances,
For the day you're dressed in white and standing next to me,
And when the world is ending, and there's no more pretending,
We weren't always made to be, together,
Can we be forever?
Let's be forever.
