I hang down on the east end
Watching all the naughty girls
Acting like they don't see me
Tonight they'll know my name
Oh Jackie you're too much
That's what they'll all say
Welcome to my little world
Come in - it's time to play

Why must it be so hard
I just try to get along
Do what I have to do
I suppose you think it's wrong
I write you letters
Some signed in blood
Why are things so hard
You never understood

I'm going down
I'm going down
I'm going down
Down to London
I'm going down
I'm going down
I'm going down
Down to London

I come around in shadows
I only like the night
Things look so much better
When they're out of sight
If you only knew me
If you only took the time
The things I could show you
Forever you'd be mine

I'm going down
I'm going down
I'm going down
Down to London
I'm going down

I'm going down
I'm going down
Down to London

I see the moon in your eyes
I smell the night in your hair
So close I could touch you
It's so unfair
I've waited so long
Don't be afraid
I have so much to give
It's so unfair
They try to catch me
They call me names
No one understands me
It's so unfair
And now I have you
It's almost time
Look into my eyes
It's so unfair
