Well here comes a sign of early warning crying out to me
Seems silly but I'm not really afraid
Must just be something going on in my head
That lets me look though I can't really see

Here comes a sign of trouble
Reaching out to me
Just another chance I'm willing to take
There's something going on, there's something going wrong
With me

My life is dragging it's slow motion then it's fast
Always a cure for the same old disease
Well I'm tied up, shackled up, Lİİ½KKED up to the past
And all I really wanted was a little piece of peace

Here comes a sign of trouble
Reaching out to me
Just another chance I'm willing to take
There's something going on, there's something going
wrong
With me - Lookout

It's been so long, so long I can't remember
So many things, just seem to slip away
Feelings changing, constantly like crazy weather
I watch them go, I watch them go away

Well here comes a sign of early warning crying out to
me
Seems silly but I'm not really afraid

Just another sign of trouble
Marching out to me
One more chance I'm willing to take There's something going on, oh god there's something going wrong
With me
