I know your name
I bring you shame
Bow down to me
I'll do what I please

Don't look into the eyes of the gods
Don't ask them why, just look away
Don't look into the eyes of the gods
Just be strong you'll have your day

I'll show you pain
With you night and day
You'll feel my hate
I own your soul, I choose your fate

I hear you scream
I watch you cry
I don't feel a thing
I hide inside my lies

Don't look into the eyes of the gods
Don't ask them why, just look away
Don't look into the eyes of the gods
Just be strong you'll have your day
