Well, It's yours

What makes you journey into the night
And take flight on a pursuit of musical bliss?
Chasing beats through ghetto streets
To a dungeonus temple left by our soul descendants
In a quest for peace, energy and light.
If you were to find this temple,
Do you have the knowledge to enter the temple?
Do you want it?
And if you had it, would you flaunt it?
Well It's yours!"

[CHORUS]

There is approaching light
A-flowing, soaring through your world
The fire burns within your heart
And now it's yours
If you feel it in yourself
I know the light goes through the stars

Acquiring entrance to the temple is hard but fair.
Trust in God-forsaken elements
Because the reward is well worth the journey.
Stay steadfast in your pursuit of the light.
The light is knowledge.
Do you want it?
And if you had it, would you flaunt it?
It's yours!"

[CHORUS]

There is approaching light
A-flowing, soaring through your world
The fire burns within your heart
And now it's yours
If you feel it in yourself
I know the light goes through the stars

Well, It's yours

Well, It's yours

You stay true to your quest.
So let the beauty that is the musical universe engulf
You.
Recharge your spirit.
Purify your mind.
Touch your soul.
And give you the eternal joy and happiness you truly
Deserve.
You now have the knowledge.
Do you want it?
And if you had it, would you flaunt it?
Well It's yours!"

Well, It's yours

Ahhhhhhh

[CHORUS]

There is approaching light
A-flowing, soaring through your world
The fire burns within your heart
And now it's yours
If you feel it in yourself
I know the light goes through the stars

[CHORUS]

There is approaching light
A-flowing, soaring through your world
The fire burns within your heart
And now it's yours
If you feel it in yourself
I know the light goes through the stars

Well, It's yours

Well, It's yours
