Gieco.
I'm into winning it and I can do anything,
That's what real champs do, they just pretending it.
You starting now I'm finishing, everything is simple

You get past the struggle, use your muscle then you win again.
Ain't nobody stopping this, they prolly just jocking this,
Why they steady hating I should tell you put a sock in it.
I remember back when I felt I wasn't cool enough,
Now look at your boy (laughter) ain't I cool or what?
