In my mind I will keep the picture
In my mind I will hold the image
In my mind I will hold you
In my mind I will hold your love
In my mind I will not forget
In my mind I will hold you

And while we're apart
Know well I will remember you
And I will be here and I will be true
I'll carry you with me
Whatever the days may bring
In my mind, in my heart, I love you

A part of my heart is there travelling with you
Part of yours remains here with me
It won't change, we won't falter

The love of my heart
Will belong to you always
The love of my life
You always shall be
I'll carry you with me
(I lean on my Father)
Whatever the days may bring
(To help me to wait for you)
'Til the day when you'll be here with me
