"When I Fall"

You try to lose your head but it always catches back up with you
Make a scene but you still get scratched up and fall
Course at the world and it courses back at you
You fall on your face and you don't know what to do

Lost in a moment I can't explain
Can't get back up
When I fall,
When I fall
Why does Misery always find me?
Right here, right were I'm supposed to be

Put down by the world and forgot who I am Senseless thoughts remind me to try not putting them down again
Confused in a hopeless time
Get back what's rightfully mine
Reclaim my name; reclaim this world that's haunting me
And has been hunting me down for eternity

Lost in a moment I can't explain
Can't get back up
When I fall,
When I fall
Why does Misery always find me?
Right here, right were I'm supposed to be

You lost all Authority
You lost yourself in this moment
Don't take your time
Cause you might get less
The more you carry on
So why can't we explain
Why can't we explain?

Lost in a moment I can't explain
Can't get back up
When I fall,
When I fall

Why does Misery always find me?
Right here, right were I'm supposed to be
