Verse 1

I'm sitting under pine and oak trees
Waiting on a summer breeze
To cool me down.
I think I've been up since dawn,
Your memories just carry on
Without a sound.

Chorus

So I'll be sitting here thinking what to do.
God knows how I miss you.
It's a shame this is what we're gonna do.
But I guess it's time I started getting over you.

Verse 2

You're like the peacocks down at the park,
So beautiful and you mean no harm
But you can't be caught.
I thought I had you in my arms one time
And everything was fine
Until we fought.

Bridge

It's like the moment when the rain comes down,
How you broke my heart, what a lonely sound.
The clouds open to a new, clear sky.
Let me clear my mind, I guess it's time
