This is where I wanna be
When the violent sky just opens up
To reveal the sun
And shine a little light on our friends

Cause that'll be the day
When we're swimming through the rays in love
Making the most of what we got
Before it ends

This is your one chance
Hell if you'll waste it
I can't let it happen
I love you too much

Then you'll see
It's like rain on a beautiful day
All the clouds go away
And we're just singing and playing and alright
Then you'll know
No matter where the wind blows us
We've always got each other
And we're dancing this dance on time

This is where I wanna be
When that summer sun comes crashing down
And makes that autumn sound
That rings out and carries us through winter

Cause that's the only way
That we'll make it through the biting cold
Yeah, if we hold close to the warmth
That resonates in our bones

I know you're a lot stronger than
They give you credit for
Riding your vital signs to the floor
So you can get back up and beg for more

This is your one chance
Hell if you'll waste it

I can't let it happen
I love you too much

Then you'll see
It's like rain on a beautiful day
All the clouds go away
And we're just singing and playing and alright
Then you'll know
No matter where the wind blows us
We've always got each other
And we're dancing this dance on time
Feeling fine

It's true, it's true, it's true, it's true

It's true
What I'm saying could save you
It's true
What I'm saying could save you
It's true, it's true
It's true
What I'm saying could save you

Then you'll see

No matter where the wind blows us

Hell if you'll waste it
I can't let it happen

(Feeling fine)

This is your one chance
Hell if you'll waste it

I love you too much
