(Verse 1)

It took a while, maybe a little bit more than I thought, it's been a while since I had started to feel tired,
So, forget you, this song is not about you anyway,
so go away, to where you belong.

(Chorus)

Under the earth,
under your feet,
Under the earth,
everything's a dream,
Under the earth,
rest like a queen,
Under the earth,
you can't hear them scream.

(Verse 2)

So let me tell you, let me tell you something, something I forgot to say today,
So, fuck you, this song is not about you, I must say,
go away and leave me alone.

(Chorus)
