Is this love?
Or a feeling more profound
For my hands and feet;
Well they've barely touched the ground

I live my life
To the beat of a lonely drum
For you my girl
My love, my only one.

Keep your love
I don't need it anymore
Keep your love
I don't need it, I don't need it anymore

I hear the bells,
Before I see them swing
The roar of the river
And the choir of reeds that sing

I wash my bones in that river
Come out anew and clean
Only to magnify
The fool that I have been

Keep your love,
I don't need it anymore
Keep y our love,
I don't need it, I don't need it anymore
