"Night Fall"

Your love is killing me, it draws me to the dark.
Your veil of ecstasy, that leaves the telling mark.
The spell you cast inside is stabbing through my heart.
It reaches deep within; it's pulling me apart.

Nightfall, you take my soul.
Nightfall, you're in control.

Your love's still haunting me, it draws me into black.
Your veil of fantasy won't let my soul come back.
The spell has taken all, I can't release my mind.
I've lost my heart to you, you're too cruel to be kind.
Nightfall, you take my soul.
Nightfall, you're in control.
Nightfall, I called you and you came.
Nightfall, I'll never be the same.

Nightfall, you take my soul.
Nightfall, you're in control.
Nightfall, I called you and you came.
Nightfall, I'll never be the same.
